Butter BTS Billboard Stars

BTS is a positive, young, 7-member group. They sing about Love and Mental Health, that combination is hard to find. They are very humble, but dynamite entertainers, Bob Fosse would be proud of their dancing. Their name BTS Bangtan Sougeondan is Korean for "Bulletproof Boy". They are also known as Bangtan Boys. I would say they are cute the girls say, and full of high energy and so together. BTS debuted 7 years ago. Their first Hit single "No More Dream", a Boy with Love and Black-Swan. The song that caught the fans attention was Boy in Luv 2014, and I Need U 2015. BTS is very clean cut and always dressed to the nines. They are very handsome young men and the winners of several Billboard 100 Awards. Butter has been on the Billboard 100 charts, for more than 8 weeks. Jennifer Lacey

Maye Musk

A Canadian-South African Model and Dietitian. She is also the mother to Elon Musk, Kimbal Musk, and Tosca Musk. She named Elon after her American grandfather (born in Illinois). Maye earned a Master Degree in Dietetics from the University of Orange Free State in South Africa and a Nutritional Science Masters from University of Toronto. Her book, "Woman Makes a Plan" is about a determine woman to whatever plan she makes. You can see her influence on Elon because she is such an adventurer. She has taken many chances and always seem to make the right choices. I got a lot out of her book from her experiences, and the way she set out to achieve them. Maye is not a person you want to dare. She will prove you wrong every time. Her modeling does not come up so much in this book. She concentrates on her Health Message and Mind more, for you to become a good person and eat the right foods, to be adventurous and don't be afraid no matter what age you are. Always have a Plan. ## Diane Von Furstenberg

Diane Von Furstenberg, is married to Media Mogul Barry Diller. She is famous for the Little Wrap Dress. Her book "Own It" is great. Easy to read, it's in alphabetical order and has meaningful words with her definitions. It reads like a dictionary, but only with more life and meaning. She is the daughter of a Holocaust Survivor, and when you get to the word "bed" it makes us all more grateful for our beds and that we truly have one, no matter how poor you are. Her book gives you a lot to be grateful for, and a lot to think about. L.F.

Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance

For those car lovers who compete at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance, it is about authenticity and the pursuit of perfection. If you attend you may see there seems to be no end to that pursuit. Many of the competitors are generous with sharing information about their passion. Peninsula Hotel presents The Quail Motorsports Gathering it gives an atmosphere and a little fashion. One of the more elegant events of the week. I have continued to attend for more than 2 decades. It's about the cars, but the atmosphere is charged with much more. I continue to be surprised by the enthusiasm of the participants. They bring appreciation of history and for the beauty on display and in route. The beauty is abundant in August on the Monterey Peninsula. Albert Maddox

Brian Peterson

The Artist

Brian Peterson, is a car designer for Kia Motors in California by day and a bike riding humanitarian by night. I believe in my heart and spirit that love always gives. Love is a giving action says Brian. Peterson is a creative person. Peterson gets to know the homeless people he paints. He finds out what their story is and takes a black and white photo of them. From there, he lets the photo speak to him and inspires him to choose colors. He sells each painting for $2,500 and splits the money with the person he painted. "Some people use the money for hotel rooms, other choose to see family they haven't seen in a while. "We've even booked train tickets", said Brian. Every time a painting gets sold Peterson creates a "love account" for the subject, and they can use that money to start fresh.

The location for the Kobe Bryant mural with his Oscar, painted by Brian Peterson, is at Highland and Hollywood Blvd. steps away from Dolby Theater on Hollywood Blvd.

KOBE BRYANT

INDUCTED INTO THE

Basketball Hall of Fame

We all knew it was coming but we didn't know the particulars of the day. The enshrinement of KOBE into the Basketball Hall of Fame. Kobe Bryant and his daughter Gigi passed away in a plane crash last year shortly after he had already been selected to join this year's HOF class which includes some of his contemporaries like Tim Duncan, Kevin Garnet and media man Michael Wilbon. They were competitors on the court but were relatable off the court. After being escorted to the podium by Michael Jordan, Vanessa Bryant stood before thousands wearing a purple Laker colored dress at the Mohegan Sun Arena in the picturesque Uncasville, Connecticut. "If my husband were heretoneight'dhavealonglistofpeopletothankthathelped inspire him and equipped him to be in the Hall of Fame," said Vanessa. "Right now he's probably laughing in heaven because I'm about to praise him in public," she added. And praise she did. She took us behind the scenes of a superstar and his family. She took us beyond the Jump Shots and Slam Dunks. Bryant not only was a five-time NBA Champion, an 18-time All-star, Kobe also was League MVP while he and Laker Legend Bob Pettit are the only players to be All-Star game MVP four times.

He also was the first NBA player to win an Academy Award. Thank you for getting up at 4am, thank you for putting our family first, thank you for your sense of humor," she stated. "There will never be another Kobe -he was humble off the court -But bigger than life." "You always told me if your going to bet on someone, bet on yourself. You're a true champ You did it, you're in the Hall of Fame, you're not just an MVP you're an all-time great. "I love you forever and always Kobe Bean Bryant". On the previous day his oldest Daughter Natalia was presented his Hall of Fame jacket by Vanessa. She wore it proudly. She was accompanied by her sisters Bianka and Capri. There were moments when Vanessa became emotional during the speech, but she made it through. She received a rousing ovation and many in the Crowd shouted "KOBE, KOBE KOBE"-Jordan gave her a kiss on the forehead then escorted her off stage. "It was a beautiful thing to see Vanessa put the jacket on their daughter," said LeBron James. Michael Wilbon received the Curt Gowdy Award for Print Media. Mike Breen (Electronic inside) and Jim Grey also were recipients. Wilbon spent 20 years as a journalist for the Washington Post. He's now known for his ESPN PTI (Pardon The Interruption) with co-host Tony Kornheiser. In para phrasing Kornheiser, Wilbon stated: "Basketball of all the sports may be the closest thing in society to an true meritocracy where a person of color can go from playing to coaching to being hired again to having a valued voice on a platform. It's fitting that men and women of this particular sport are leading this social revolution. "In recent months the game has lost men that have meant so much to my development as a sportswriter- Gale Sayers and Bobby Mitchell, are Hall of Famers from other sports but several belong to this group (Basketball) John Chaney, John Thompson, Wes Unseld, Elgin Baylor and Kobe Bryant who we honor this time." # Virgin Galactic Sir Richard Branson

This is an exciting time in the United States. Richard Branson's flight to space reminds me of the Wright Bros. Wilbur and Orville. Yes it's $250,000 now, per person, but in 20 years it will be $2,500 per person. The Wright's were called bluffers, scorned by newspapers, but look at us now since 1905, we are flying everywhere in the world. I think the same will happen for Branson he is a visionary. I understand passengers are allowed to unbuckle to float to a window to what he calls a magical view. I am happy to be living in his time. L.F.

RAIDERS

A storied franchise embarks on a new home

The Las Vegas Raiders are one of the most storied franchise in Professional sports. The team will begin the 2021 -22 NFL season playing at the magnificent newly constructed Allegiant Stadium. The new marvel is located at 3333 Al Davis Way, named after the long-time coach and managing partner. The 65,000-seat venue that will have fans for the first time since the COVID pandemic began in early 2020. They have a proud tradition that began in Oakland, California as part of the then new American Football League-AFL in 1960. At berth the team was originally known as the Oakland Senor's a name coming from a contest held by the hometown paper the Oakland Tribune. In 1960 after being denied a chance to play at CAL Memorial Stadium at Berkley the inaugural games were played at Kezar stadium in San Francisco. The final three home games of the campaign were played at Candlestick Park. In 1961 Candlestick became home. In 1962 Frank Youell Field was home while the Oakland -Alameda County Coliseum was being built. In 1963 then team owner T. Wayne Valley hired a young Al Davis from the San Diego Chargers to be Head coach and General manager of the RAIDERS. At 33 he was the youngest person in three decades to hold position as head coach and the youngest ever to be a GM. In his first year Davis turned the team from 1-13 to 10-4 and was named "AFL Coach of the Year." Davis initiated slogans like "Pride and Poise", "Commitment to Excellence," and "Just Win Baby" they all are trade-marked. He immediately changed the colors from black and gold to silver and black. In 1967 the team played in Super Bowl II and lost against the Green Bay Packers 33-14. In the 1970's the team won eight divisional titles and beat the Vikings in Super Bowl XI by a 33-14 score. In the 1980's Tom Flores was named head coach and led the team to Super Bowl XV, a 27-10 win over the Eagles. It was the first time a Wild Card team won a Super Bowl. In 1982 the team moved to the L.A. Coliseum. They became the first team to play in a Super Bowl in three different decades the 1960's,70's and 80's while winning titles in 1980 and 1984. They stayed until 1994 when they moved back to Oakland. In October of 2011 HOF owner Al Davis passed at his home. Even though in poor health for awhile it was still stunning to the RAIDERS organization and fans. The family held on to the team and son Mark Davis was in control. With agreements from NFL owners the team began construction of a new stadium in Las Vegas. On Jan. 22, 2020 the team was officially renamed the Las Vegas Raiders. The team will play pre-season and 8 regular season NFL home games there. A 93-foot torch sits at one end it commemorates the late team owner, Al Davis Memorial Torch. Carol Davis widow of the late owner and mother of Mark was the first to light the torch in September 21, 2020. Aside from the 60 thousand plus seats it has 128 Executive suites, It will also be the home of the UNLV football team. The Venue will host WWE's Summer Slam. Guns and Roses will perform the first ever Rock Concert. Garth Brooks recently played the first Country Concert. You can host a family or corporate events there. Allegiant Stadium is one of the new marvels of the world get your chance to check it out. Earl Heath
